A motion was made by George Fisher, seconded by Truxell, to pay Edward Hodge for 28 hours emergency wages. Voting yes, Fisher and Truxell.

The clerk was instructed to write Ohio Edison asking that lights be installed on Nines Hill Rd. at Krusinaki's, on Boston Mills Rd. at Mike James, and at the corner of Sullivan and Akron-Cleveland Rd.

Paul Wright gave his police report for the last period and stated that it would be much better to give his reports on a monthly basis. He also, recommended forming a Police Auxiliary and Trustees told him to see what can be done regarding forming an auxiliary.

The clerk was instructed to inquire of John Smith as to the length of time before an election necessary to file for a levy to be placed on the ballot.

Also, to write to the clerk of the zoning commission asking that the commission take into consideration rezoning both sides of Riverview Road from the 271 bridge to the Cuyahoga County line.

The Trustees were displeased that its grounds are being used as a parking lots for patrons of Bunkers. Paul Wright stated that he would contact parties in charge and ask that they use other parking areas.

Truxell gave a report of the joint meeting with Peninsula Council. He stated, that although they were not present, he spoke for both Trustees Fisher and Chesear, in approval of James Scobie to the vacancy on the Cemetery Board. Also, that council advise the Trustees, preferably in May, as to the cost of the fire protection contract for the following year so that the trustees might use this figure in making out their budget for the following year. Council thought that the cost of the contract for the year 1970 would be $2000.00. He asked that the copy of the contract for the year 1969 be mailed to the trustees as soon as possible.

Fisher stated that he would set up a date with Richfield Trustees and zoning members for a joint meeting regarding zoning laws for the interchange at 271 and Rt. 303.

It was agreed to allow $100.00 convention expense money to Geo. Fisher, Jr. The meeting adjourned at 8:30 P.M.
