A. D. 19

A Meeting of the Board of Trustees of Boston Township was held on Monday, August 15, 1960 with the following members present: 7 P.M. Geo. E. Fisher Jr., C. L. Truxell and Vernon Boodey.

The minutes of the Special Meeting held July 29 were approved as read.

The following bills were approved for payment:

Superior Street Cilling Co.	607.50
Walton Tractor Sales	40.84
H. D. Garage	18.29

Mr. and Mrs. Payne of Keenan Rd. attended the meeting to request attention be given the road drainage problem in front of their property. Boodey stated that Mr. Kubicek's drain pipe had been installed too high causing this condition. It was agreed by the Trustees that the Township road man would lower the Kubicek pipe as soon as possible.

After a lengthy discussion by the Trustees on road conditions it was agreed to have the road man attempt to fill the holes with material that was available.

The Clerk then read the Resolution received from the Board of Summit County Commissioner's adopting the previously submitted Township Resolution requesting their services in the amount of $125.00. This Resolution was approved August 9, 1960.

The Clerk once again read the correspondence received from C. L. Bower, County Auditor, in regards to the 2 mill Levy which was passed on May 3, 1960. Mr. Bower explained the Township would be without a Levy for road purposes during the year 1961 because of the wording of the approved Levy, which stated for the taxable years 1961 and 1962.

The Trustees then discussed what should be done to correct this error. It was agreed to allow the Levy which was passed for 1961 and 1962 to continue on as voted, and to submit another Levy to cover needed expenses for the year 1961 which would be a renewal of the 1.34 mills which has been in effect for the past two years.

The following Resolution was then proposed:

RESOLUTION

BOSTON TOWNSHIP

It was moved by George Fisher Jr. and seconded by Charles L. Truxell that the following resolution be adopted:
