The Clerk was instructed to pay the J. A. Mayer Co. $457.58, for work completed on Stine Rd. and bill the Village of Peninsula $228.79 for their share of the work completed.

The Clerk was also instructed to pay the amount of $87.12 to Terry Lumber & Supply for additional pipe (drain) used at the end of Stanford Rd. to make it passable for the School Bus to turn. This is in addition to previous repair work.

Lawson Scobie reported he had discussed the Keenan Rd. condition with Mr. Mills of Hudson. They both agreed the matter should be taken up with the County Engineer's Office.

Truxell advised the Clerk the Rose Oil Co. should be notified in regards to the Township's Contract servicing the heating equipment.

Scobie reported the Blinn Trucking Co. quoted a price of $1.35 a ton to stockpile Slakerstone at the Township Yard.

Truxell made a motion a hundred ton of Slakerstone be purchased from the Columbia Southern Chemical Co. at $1.50 per tone, which will be delivered by the Blinn Trucking Co. This was seconded by Scobie and approved.

Truxell made a motion the Clerk be instructed to contact the Akron Agencies for the purchase of a $1000 Bond for the Zoning Inspector, which is required by Statute. Scobie seconded the motion and it was passed.

The Clerk was instructed to make out Leases for 1960 for the Grange and Peninsula Library & Historical Society and submit for approval to the Trustees at the next Meeting.

The Meeting adjourned at 8:45. P.M.
