Dear Miss McDevitt:

I think you will be interested in this copy of a news piece out of the Cleveland Plain Dealer of December 17th. Apparently one of the effective ways to deal with the coon dog chasers would be to sue them for damages as was done at Bucyrus.

This is just for your information.

Very truly yours,

Chases Off Couple's Land

BUCYRUS, O. Dec. 15- An injunction, permanently restraining the promoters of the Leafy Oaks coon dog trial from holding any future chases over land owned by a couple in this city was granted here today by Crawford County Common Pleas Judge John C. Carroll.
