FEDERAL HELP IN ROAD COSTS SOUGHT IN PARK AREA

Federal sharing in the costs of road maintenance and improvements in the Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area will be sought in a cooperative effort by an organization of area governments and local officials of the National Park Service.

This effort was initiated by a resolution adopted at the meeting of the Cuyahoga Valley Communities Council on Wednesday, May 15, in Sagamore Hills Township. Local officials of the National Park Service are members of this organization together with representatives of county and local governments and metropolitan park and school districts.

All of the public roads in the area already were in existence when the Congress in 1974 authorized creation of the federal park by the National Park Service. But the Congress did not authorize the National Park Service to expend federal funds for their maintenance or improvement. This has remained the responsibility of the state, counties, municipalities and townships, depending upon which level of government has jurisdiction on each roadway.

Development by the National Park Service of recreational and other visitor facilities in the park has led to increased traffic while at the same time federal land acquisition for these facilities and other purposes has reduced public revenues as the properties become exempt from taxation. Consequently, reduced local budgets for road maintenance and improvements has led to

IN REPLY REFER TO:

Daniel Schneider Jr.
President, Boston Township Trustees
Rt. 305 and Riverview Rd.
Peninsula, OH 44264

May 9, 1991

Dear Mr. Schneider:

Over the past several years, groups such as North Cuyahoga Valley Corridor, Inc., the Ohio & Erie Canal Corridor Coalition, individual communities and the National Park Service have focused their attention on the historic, natural, and recreational resources along the route of the Ohio & Erie Canal. Congress has directed the National Park Service to examine the feasibility of designating the Ohio & Erie Canal Corridor, 65 miles, from Cleveland to Zoar, as the nation's fourth National Heritage Corridor.

A heritage corridor is defined as "a linear landscape of significant and diverse character that becomes the focus of a public and private partnership to preserve, enhance, and interpret the cultural, natural, and recreational resources within to create a sense of place, promote economic growth, and improve the image and quality of life in the region." National designation of the Ohio & Erie Canal Corridor would establish a management framework to design and implement a planning, development, and marketing strategy for corridor resources through cultivation of unique partnerships throughout the public and private sector.

The National Park Service would like to invite you to a meeting designed to introduce the corridor concept to important community representatives from the cities and villages along the former canal route. Two meetings are scheduled, Thursday, May 23, 1991 at Stark Tech, in Canton and Thursday May 30, 1991, at Tower City Center, in Cleveland. Both meetings begin with light refreshments available from 1 - 1:30 during registration. The program and meeting will take place from 1:30 - 3:10 followed by an opportunity to view a 15-minute video on the Illinois & Michigan Canal National Heritage Corridor, the first to receive a national designation. The enclosed packet provides background information with more details to be provided at the meetings.

We invite you to attend one or both of these meetings. Please RSVP by returning the enclosed form to Paul Labovitz, National Park Service, Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area, 15610 Vaughn Road, Brecksville, OH 44141 or call (216) 526-5256 (Cleveland) or (216) 650-4414 (Akron).

We look forward to working with you in this effort to encourage local, regional, and national recognition of the Ohio & Erie Canal Corridor.

Sincerely,

John P. Debo, Jr.
Superintendent, Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area
